

GreenGold Group AB (publ) Privacy Policy

GreenGold Group AB (publ) (the “Company”) recognizes the importance of data protection and is committed to always maintaining appropriate safeguards as required by applicable law to ensure the integrity and security of your personal data. This privacy policy informs you of how we may process your personal data.

Collection of personal data

The Company collects and processes personal data that are provided to the Company in connection with your business relationship with the Company. Personal data may also be collected in circumstances when you subscribe for press releases, newsletters or other information or when you register for capital market days, company presentations or similar events. Personal data may be collected from a third party source e.g. as part of the Company’s investment processes or from publicly available records. The personal data that is collected and processed by the Company may include e.g. name, business related contact details, information on your role and details of the company or organization that you represent.

Processing of personal data

The Company processes personal data for business related matters and for administrating and maintaining agreements and business relations with the Company’s customers, suppliers and business partners. Personal data may also be processed in order to administrate the Company’s investments and to send press releases, newsletters and invitations to capital market days, seminars and similar events. When processing personal data for these purposes, the Company considers whether the processing is necessary for purposes of our legitimate interests. The Company has a strong interest in maintaining business relations with other companies and organisations and the Company only processes your business information as a representative or contact person of such company or organization.

Purposes of processing your personal data

The Company may use your personal data for purposes described above to share with competent authorities, its group companies (any), business partners or service providers. If a business partner or a service provider is located in a country outside the EU/EEA, your personal data may be transferred to a country that does not have data protection laws equivalent to ours. In those circumstances, the Company will put in place appropriate safeguards to protect your personal data in connection with the transfer. You may contact us anytime using the contact details below if you would like further information on such safeguards.

The Company retains personal data as long as there is a business relationship with the company or organization that you represent or otherwise as long as it is necessary to fulfil the purpose of the processing. Personal data will also be retained as long as required by applicable laws, regulations or decisions by authorities. You may at any time unsubscribe from receiving press releases, newsletters and similar information and your information will thereafter no longer be retained for such purposes.

You have the right to request information on the personal data about you, which we hold, to have any inaccurate personal data corrected and to object to or restrict our using your personal data. In accordance with applicable law, you may also request to delete your personal data, make a complaint if you have a concern about our processing of your personal data or make a request for disclosure of your personal data in a machine-readable format.

How to get in touch

If you have any questions regarding the processing of your personal data by the Company, you can contact us at info@greengold.se . If you have any complaints regarding the processing of your personal data, you can also contact the Swedish Data Protection Authority.
